Cautionary Note on Forward-Looking Statements

This Current Report on Form 8-K (this “Report”) and any related statements of representatives and partners of the Company contain, or may contain, among other things, certain “forward-looking statements” within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the “Securities Act”), and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the “Exchange Act”). Such forward-looking statements involve significant risks and uncertainties. Such statements may include, without limitation, statements with respect to the Company’s plans, objectives, projections, expectations and intentions and other statements identified by words such as “projects,” “may,” “will,” “could,” “would,” “should,” “believes,” “expects,” “anticipates,” “estimates,” “intends,” “plans,” or similar expressions. These statements are based upon the current beliefs and expectations of the Company’s management and are subject to significant risks and uncertainties, including those detailed in the Company’s filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the “SEC”). Actual results may differ significantly from those set forth in the forward-looking statements. These forward-looking statements involve certain risks and uncertainties that are subject to change based on various factors (many of which are beyond the Company’s control). The Company undertakes no obligation to publicly update any forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise, except as required by applicable law.

Item 8.01 Other Events.

On September 18, 2017, PositiveID Corporation (the “Company”) determined it needed to reschedule its previously scheduled press conference announcing the history of the FireflyDX product, advancements in the Company’s technology, and the Lawrence Livermore National Laboratory (“LLNL”) report prepared for the Company’s ExcitePCR Corporation subsidiary on its FireflyDX technology. While the Company has received the final report from LLNL, it is still in discussions with LLNL on the appropriate terms of publication and dissemination of the report. The Company had expected to complete this process by September 15th. It now hopes to complete this process by October 2017.

The panel discussion featuring the Company’s President, Lyle L. Probst, to be held today, September 18th, hosted by the National Academies of Science, Engineering, and Medicine (NAS) will commence at 3:30 pm ET. The panel discussion is part of a two-day, BioWatch Workshop on “Strategies for Effective Biological Detection Systems” hosted by the NAS, and will cover current and future advancements in pathogen detection systems.
